

RETREATING AUSTRIANS LEAVE THOUSANDS OF FROZEN BODIES

Russians Compel Austrians to Fall Back, Leaving Vast Territory in Galicia Where Inhabitants are Suffering Famine.

GREAT STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE GERMANS AND RUSSIANS STILL CONTINUES WITHOUT DECISION

German Forces Said to be Cutting Way Through Encircling Hosts of Czar, but Big Russian Victory Still is Expected—Violent Fighting Renewed Along Yser and Allies are Expected to Compel Retreat of Germans—King George's Presence in France Causes Enthusiasm. Unofficial Report States German Forces are Retreating From Dixmude Vicinity—Capture of 9500 Russians Claimed by Germany.

By Associated Press.

Lemberg, Galicia, December 1.—The energetic Russian advance is persistently pushing back the Austrians into Cracow. Information reaching Lemberg is to the effect that the Austrians are evacuating position after position with large losses. It is stated that the Austrian line of retreat is strewn so thickly with the dead that the Russians have not time to bury them. The cold is so severe that the bodies are frozen. German officers are in supreme command at Cracow. Recent arrivals from provinces of Galicia state the inhabitants of all the regions evacuated by the Austrians are facing famine.

Berlin, December 1.—Today's official announcement says that 9500 more prisoners have been taken in Russian-Poland in the engagements near the Vistula river, which were said yesterday in Berlin to have resulted favorably for the forces of Emperor William.

London, December 1.—Violent fighting is in progress today along the Yser Canal, according to a report. The roaring of heavy guns has been heard all day. Inhabitants of all villages within one hour's march of the Yser battle front have been sent away.

London, December 1.—A general retirement of the Germans before the Belgian town of Dixmude was reported unofficially today. The Germans recently captured from the allies this town, which lies in the heart of the contested section of Belgium where uncounted thousands have died as a result of the German effort to force a way to the English Channel. There was no official confirmation, however, of the reported withdrawal, which could not be reconciled with reports last night that a great battle was in progress between the Yser canal and the river Lys. It was said that 120,000 Germans had been brought up before Ypres to make a last effort to capture the town.

Latest information concerning the situation in the east indicated that the Germans were undertaking vigorous offensive movements in Russian Poland. In East Prussia the Russians have succeeded in penetrating about 30 miles beyond the border and in Galicia it is reported that the Ausders. This partly is due, of course, to the fact that there has been so little change in the western situation, conditions which may persist until some sharp turn occurs in the eastern struggle.

Throughout Belgium the Germans are remaining, generally speaking, on the defensive and immediate signs of a renewal of attempts to hack their way to the French coast are lacking. Some dispatches say the Germans already have begun to fall back from their rear entrenchments, but as the official statements make no mention of this it is assumed it is only a guess of correspondents, working on the theory that the Russian success has been overwhelming and final.

King George's visit to France seems greatly to appeal to the popular imagination. The newspapers are featuring his majesty's trip, pointing out that it is the first time a reigning British monarch has been with his army in the field for 171 years, George II being his last predecessor to do so.

SAYS MONROE DOCTRINE DEAD

Melbourne, Australia, December 1.—The Melbourne Age, referring to the views of Former President Taft concerning the Monroe Doctrine, expressed recently at Montclair, N. J., and particularly his statement that the United States would not be compelled by the terms of the Monroe Doctrine to intervene if Canada should be attacked by Germany has this to say:

"If this interpretation represents the views of the government of the United States an event of first rate importance to the entire civilized world has taken place. If the Wilson government shares Mr. Taft's opinion it is clear the Monroeism is a thing of the past and that the United States has abdicated the position she has been jealously guarding for a period extending upwards of eighty years."

RECOUNT REFUSED BY SUPREME COURT

By Associated Press.

Columbus, December 1.—The Supreme Court today refused to order a recount of ballots on the Home Rule and Prohibition amendments in Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Lucas and Franklin counties as asked by the Anti-Saloon League. A writ of mandamus directed against Secretary of State Graves to order the recount was refused. Although no opinion has been handed down as yet by the Court it was indicated that the decision was based on the ground that there was a lack of proper legislation in regard to election.

The suit was brought more than two weeks ago by Anti-Saloon League officials in the name of Worthington Kautzman of Columbus. The writ of mandamus against the Secretary of State to secure a recount in the counties in question was sought on the ground that there was fraud in the counting and casting of ballots, in the November elections.

Indications were today that the decision of the Court would result in the Anti-Saloon League seeking further action regarding the election laws before the legislature. It is not expected that the officers of the league will again attempt to carry the question into the courts.

The decision of the Court on the recount was unanimous. Judge Wilkin did not sit in the case, however. Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, said that dry forces will demand of the next legislature legislation safeguarding elections on question such as prohibition, providing legal means for a recount and allowing challenges in such elections. Attorney General Hogan was pleased by the decision. He intimated that the Anti-Saloon League had not acted in good faith in bringing the suit.

HOME RULE AMENDMENT VALID

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, December 1.—Sustaining the validity of the home rule amendment to the constitution as adopted at the November elections, Judge E. B. Kinkead, of the Franklin county Common Pleas court today handed down a decision in the suit of Chas. S. Hockett, of Bellefontaine, against the State Liquor License Commissioners. The decision also interprets the amending of the new amendment.

Hockett's attorney sought to maintain that the constitutional amendment is not valid for the reason that no method has been provided by law with which to submit a constitutional amendment to the people and that the amendment is a violation of the "welfare" and "republican" form of government.

COX TO EXTEND HUNTING DATES

By Associated Press.

Columbus, December 1.—Gov. Cox said today he expects to issue a proclamation tomorrow extending the hunting season from December 4, the legal closing date, to the middle of December. The season was closed temporarily over the state and still is under the official ban in 48 counties.

VILLA ENTERS MEXICO CITY

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, via El Paso, Texas, December 1.—General Villa entered the capital today at the head of about 25,000 troops. He arrived during the afternoon in the suburbs, where he remained during the evening receiving delegations and foreign consuls. Villa will not enter the capital part of the city until the arrival of Provisional President Gutierrez.

General Villa issued a statement to the Associated Press saying in part: "My only mission is to restore order in Mexico and not to take personal revenge on anyone. I promise that order will be restored at once. I am acting as the subordinate of Provisional President Gutierrez and the nation."

General Villa had a narrow escape from death just before his entry into the city. His train collided with the train of General Chao above Tula. Thirty-two persons were killed and 40 wounded. One mile below the scene of the wreck 6 mines were found concealed in a ravine. The general's train passed over these mines, which were not discovered until the next morning.

MEN ARE ROBBED AND HURLED FROM TRAIN; 3 KILLED

By Associated Press.

Sandusky, O., December 1.—Half a dozen men were pushed from a west-bound Lake Shore freight train between Cleveland and Toledo early this morning by a white man and two negroes, who first robbed the victims, according to reports received by the police here. One, a Cleveland teamster, was found dead at Bay-bridge, six miles west of Sandusky and another, a tramp, badly injured. An unknown man, the police say, was found dead near Amherst and another near Port Clinton.

WOMAN FOUND ON ENGINE PILOT

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, O., December 1.—A woman, thought by the police to be Laura Evans, aged 27, of Buffalo, early today was found in a semi-conscious condition on the pilot of the engine of a Lake Shore passenger train, when it pulled into the Union Station. She was well dressed, there were no marks of violence on her body and in her purse were $18. Efforts are being made to revive her at a hospital.

STAMP USERS STORM OFFICE

By Associated Press.

New York, December 1.—A throng of more than 10,000 persons stormed the United States Internal Revenue offices in this city today endeavoring to buy the new war tax stamps that have to be affixed to many documents and proprietary articles.

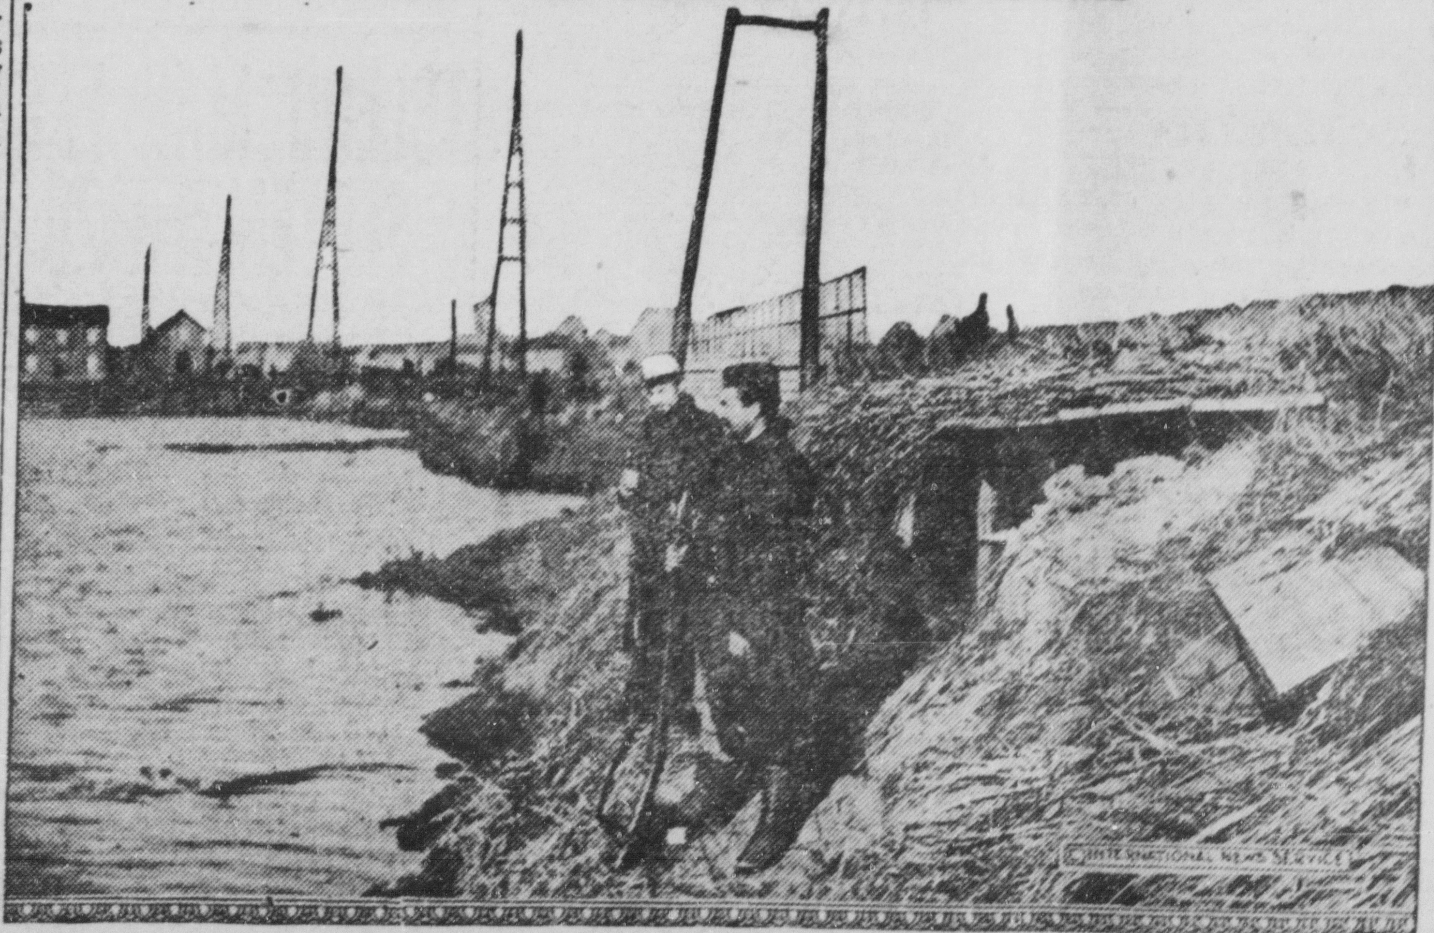

Chicago, December 1.—So great was the rush here today to buy war tax stamps that 20 policemen were called to the federal building to restore order.

BOARD IN SESSION AT CHICAGO

Arbitration of Questions at Issue Between Ninety-eight Western Railroads and 55,000 Employees Begins Before a Commission Appointed Under the Newlands Act—Burdens of the Men in the Cab Described.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—When the arbitration of questions at issue between ninety-eight western railroads and 55,000 of their enginemen began in this city, before a board appointed under the Newlands act, the representatives of the men set out to prove that every one of their sixteen demands, with two exceptions of a comparatively minor nature, has the sanction of one or more railroads. In other words, concessions now demanded of all the roads are in actual existence on some roads, although no one road has granted all of them.

The arbitrators are W. L. Park and H. E. Byram, representing the railroads; F. A. Burgess and Timothy Shea for the employees, and Judge Peter C. Pritchard, and Charles Nagel, appointed by the government.

Judge Pritchard was chosen chairman, and in making a routine announcement added that the board was fully aware of the great importance of the issues involved. Then he and his fellow members settled into their chairs and for five hours listened, with scarcely an interruption, to a solid volume of statistics elicited by Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

acting as counsel for the men, from Mr. Cadle.

The wage increase sought by the men is about 10 per cent. They are represented in court by Warren S. Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and William S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

The railroads are represented by the twelve committeemen of the managers' association, assisted by legal counsel. The evidence will be largely statistical, although about forty witnesses, divided equally between the two sides, will be heard.

Speaking for the men, Mr. Stone laid stress on the hardships suffered by the men, their long hours of service, the hazards which they encounter and weight of responsibility thrown on the man at the throttle and the fireman at the stokehole. He insisted that there would be no attempt on the part of the employees to distort facts and that by truthful witnesses he would show that the employees were clearly entitled to better service conditions and higher wages than the railroad managers were inclined to accord them.

CARRANZA WILL PUSH REFORM

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 1.—General Villa, though still close to Mexico City, will not enter the capital, his consul declares, until the provisional government is assembled and ready to make the entry with him.

The Carranza government will begin at once a far-reaching reform that will result in the government operating and developing all of the national resources of Mexico according to advice received by the Carranza consulate. These reforms, which have already been launched by the appointment of a commission composed of Carranzistas, will include the repatriation of land, drastic marriage and divorce laws and the national development and operation of mineral, petroleum and timber lands and a complete government ownership of public utilities.

UNABLE TO PAY EMPLOYEES

New York, Dec. 1.—Unable to pay its employees, the United States Metal Products company, of which Albion B. Turner is president, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, giving the assets as $3,300,869.86 and the debts as $1,008,550.16. Judge Mayer at once appointed Mr. Turner, P. T. Sherman and Thomas C. Clarke as receivers under joint bonds of $50,000 to conduct the business for ninety days. The petition in bankruptcy is said to be preliminary to a thorough reorganization of the concern, which owns a large plant at College Point, L. I., employing at present 400 men, but with a capacity for 1,200 men.

MUST STAND TRIAL

Washington, Dec. 1.—The supreme court decided that George G. CORN PARTY IN CAPITAL

Ohio Boys and Girls Will Be Received By Wilson.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The Ohio corn special, carrying 1,500 people, three-fourths of them juniors, arrived in Washington today, the run being made without special incident. The train reached Pittsburgh last night in seven sections, which started from as many different points in Ohio.

In the party are 329 who received the trip as prizes. About one-half of the corn boys wear khaki uniforms. The day is being spent in sightseeing.

Two days will be spent here. Tomorrow morning the party will be received at the White House by President Wilson. Secretary of State Bryan will also talk to the boys and girls. After "doing" Washington the party will visit Mt. Vernon to see the tomb of Washington.

Thursday the party will visit Philadelphia and will be shown the mint, Independence hall, Wanamaker's store and other points of interest. They will be tendered a banquet at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel. The Philadelphia board of trade has offered a prize of $100 for the Ohio corn growers, and this will be received while the party is in the city. From Philadelphia the party will proceed to New York, where the members will make their headquarters at the Waldorf-Astoria. The party will start back Friday.

LANGDON NAMED

Columbus, Dec. 1.—Attorney General-elect Edward C. Turner announced the appointment of Lawrence K. Langdon of Warren county as special counsel to the state utilities commission, to succeed Joseph A. McGhee, Turner's Democratic opponent in the late campaign. The appointment was recognized as a disclosure of policy of the incoming legal officer of the state. Langdon, more than any other man, was responsible for the enactment of the law establishing the first public service commission, which was superseded by the present public utilities commission. That law was passed by the Harmon Democratic legislature.

BRYANT NEXT ADJ'T GENERAL

Columbus, Dec. 1.—Colonel Edward S. Bryant of the Second Infantry, Ohio National Guard, will succeed Adjutant General George H. Wood. That was the word which reached Republican state headquarters from Ada, where Colonel Bryant talked with Governor-elect Willis. It was considered quite probable that Major W. H. Duffy of Columbus, who was endorsed for adjutant general by the Franklin county Republican committee, will be appointed assistant adjutant general.

RECOUNT DEMANDED

Columbus, Dec. 1.—Asking an injunction to prevent the Franklin county board of elections destroying the ballots cast at the last election, a petition was filed in the common pleas courts today which, coupled with complaints filed with the clerk of the Ohio senate and the clerk of the house, is calculated to challenge the right to sit in those bodies of all the men announced as having been elected from Franklin county. Those declared elected are all Democrats. The petition is signed by L. B. Cherington, president of the honest elections committee. Errors are alleged to have been made in the counting and certifying the vote.

It is said that those behind the movement are simply paying the way for remedial laws to be asked during the coming session of the assembly. These laws would relate to recounting of ballots. Authority for such recounts is in doubt, as the law relating to them is hazy.

Paris, Dec. 1.—War has killed modernism and atheism in France. Churches and cathedrals, long practically deserted, are crowded with people who have been awakened to a new devoutness by the war. Washington, Dec. 1.—While President Wilson is not expected to seek to mold the position of congress on the resolution of Representative Gardner for an investigation of the military strength of the United States, officials close to the White House said he would oppose the investigation if asked for an opinion. The president is understood to think that such an inquiry is untimely.

Nervy Woman to Fight Claique

Miss Kate Bernard, Oklahoma's commissioner of charities, declares that there is a conspiracy of powerful interests trying to rob the Oklahoma Indians of lands valued at more than $200,000,000.

Miss Bernard's position makes her the immediate official protector of the Indians in her state and she is supported in her startling charges by Mr. Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs.

Strongly aroused to protect the ignorant and helpless Indian heirs, Miss Bernard announces that she is "in this fight to the finish" and calls upon the people of the United States to stand by her when "the crookedness that has been going on in Oklahoma will be brought to the attention of Congress by Commissioner Sells in a special report."

Miss Bernard says that "two hundred millions is a low estimate of the money prize at stake and the success of the plot means misery and poverty for 10,000 Indian mothers and the unborn babes of coming generations. This remaining stupendous wealth is now in the hands of 33,000 restricted Indians, most of whom are ignorant and cannot read or write. The remainder of the 100,000 Indians have already been robbed."

"This conspiracy reaches from the political group which dominated the fourth legislature of Oklahoma."

If all that Oklahoma's commissioner states is true, and there must certainly be grave cause for her positiveness, another chapter is added to the injustice from which Indians have so often suffered.

Miss Bernard claims that the most common form of plunder lies in the power to sell a minor's land for the pretended purpose of benefiting the minor. Reduced to money 80 per cent of the capital is consumed by fake "court cost", "attorney fees" and "allowances", "bad loans" and "investments."

One specially appealing case she cites is that of three little children living in utterly homeless and friendless fashion, sleeping in a hollow tree and eating at neighboring farm houses.

The Department of Charities investigated the case and found that the children were under the "protection" of a guardian who had fifty-one other children under his protecting care. The three little ones had valuable lands in the Glenn Pool oil fields, and the guardian was charging up large amounts for their "schooling" and "general care," but did not know where or how they were living.

The Oklahoma commissioner of charities is as intrepid as she is incensed over the wrong contemplated by an organized clique of grafters in robbing the Oklahoma Indians of more than $200,000,000 worth of coal oil land.

The fact that the commissioner is a woman does not deter her from making unqualified statements and in organizing a state-wide and nation-wide "people's lobby" in the interest of her charges.

Miss Bernard advocates the policy that the United States Indian office shall provide a number of special attorneys in Oklahoma to take charge of the probate business involving Indian children. "They are to look after such cases of adjusting estates as may arise, and also to dig up all the wrong-doing in cases already disposed of and institute criminal prosecutions, where necessary, to bring defaulting and thieving administrators and executors to justice."

There is one thing assured, that this matter of Oklahoma Indian graft will be investigated and it is probable that new names will be added to the scores of crooked administrators who have been convicted of having stolen from Indian children hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Modern Machinery the Real Cause of the War

By Rev. E. W. MEAD, President American Peace Society

NOTHING can do more harm than the feeling that the Germans are all Huns under the leadership of Bernhardt. The reason why they are now waging war is that they think they are fighting for life and death in the midst of hostile enemies.

THE MACHINERY OF THE AGE IS THE REAL CAUSE OF THE WAR, INCLUDING AS MACHINERY THE MOBILIZATION FACTORIES, GUNS AND DREADNOUGHTS.

This machinery has outgrown Christianity, and it is now the duty of Christians to bring it back under the mastery of the better side of man's nature.

Filipinos and Chickens.

The fact that no Filipino of the common class regards himself equipped for living without at least one male chicken explains why the islands, although raising so many chickens, still import millions of dozens of eggs. As in all cockfighting countries, the fighting bird in the Philippines is a personal pet which the owner carries about during practically every idle moment of the day and on which he lavishes enough care to raise many laying hens. Duck eggs are rarely found in the market except as "balutes"—that is, eggs on the point of hatching, boiled, a form in which eggs are commonly eaten by the Filipinos. They are sold for lunches at all railway stations and at other points where crowds gather.—Argonaut.

found, however, that many of these are never the same men again. No matter how iron nerved they were before, they are now irresolute and timid and all their faculties are weakened. Very often they are jeered at by their comrades because of this change. But this is utterly unjust—in fact, their brains and spinal cords have been injured by being violently shaken against the walls of their bony cavities.

The same thing occurs in railway collisions. People who were robust become quite feeble and nervous, though they may not have received a scratch.

This curious state in the case of soldiers is well recognized by doctors under the name of the mental injuries of explosives. The injuries are really quite as physical as a shattered leg, for they consist of a kind of bruising of the very delicate tissue of the spinal cord and brain.—London Standard.

FIRST DAY OF STAMP TAX ATTRACTING MUCH INTEREST

Persons Who Did Not Obtain Stamps From Internal Revenue Office Discover That No Stamps Were on Sale Tuesday Morning—Banks Obtain Supplies Later in Day and Postoffice May Later Sell the New Stamps.

The war revenue law went into full operation Tuesday morning, or rather Monday at midnight, and for one year the little stamps will be as thick as the proverbial hops, and in every direction one turns, the little war stickers will be in evidence.

Some of those who require stamps and had expected to obtain the little fellows at the postoffice were disappointed when they made application and received the information that none of the stamps were obtainable at the postoffice, and, so far as known no place in town had them for sale.

However, late Tuesday most of the banks had received shipments of the new stamps, as well as other places, and the person who uses the stamps—and nearly every one will—may obtain certain kinds of the stamps at various places. Probably the average person will bump into the stamps most frequently in the banking business, and the banks will have the stamps on hands for the convenience of their patrons.

That part of the law requiring taxes on tobacco, beer and wine, went into effect November 1st, but the remainder, and to the average individual, the most important provisions, became effective Tuesday.

That part of the measure effective Tuesday includes taxes on bankers, pawn brokers, brokers, proprietors of theaters, including motion picture houses, owners of circuses and other amusement houses, perfumes, and other cosmetics, chewing gum and similar articles; commercial papers of all descriptions, steamship tickets, parlor car seats and sleeping car berths and telephone and telegraph messages where the charge exceeds 15 cents.

Stamps from a small fraction of one cent to many dollars are provided, and are obtained from the various internal revenue offices, and distributed by businesses requiring large numbers of the stamps for the transaction of business.

For the most part the stamp tax is received as a matter of course, and to the average individual the cost rests lightly.

Postoffices will, in all probability, later handle the little stamps.

EDUCATIONAL CLASSES PROGRESSING NICELY

The educational classes being held during the evenings in the Y. M. C. A. building are advancing rapidly and the work of the pupils gives splendid tribute to the local teachers.

In the show-card writing class, taught by Mr. Ray Feagans, the students have made great progress. After five lessons they can now execute signs that would excite the admiration of a professional. Mr. David Ferneau's class in bookkeeping is also making an especial showing and is well on toward completion of the course after 6 weeks of diligent application.

AFTER 8 YEARS WILL QUIT HOME

Supt. and Mrs. J. A. Tway Notify Trustees That They Expect to Move to Farm When Present Term Expires in March—Have Eight Years of Most Successful Work to Their Credit.

After eight years of splendid service as superintendent and matron of the County Children's Home, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tway have notified the Home trustees that when their present term expires March 1st, 1914, that they will move to their farm near Staunton, and will not be applicants for the positions.

The trustees will employ the successors to Mr. and Mrs. Tway, about January 1st, and they are now ready to receive applicants for the positions.

During the eight years' administration of the County Home by Mr. and Mrs. Tway, the affairs of the Home were handled in exceptionally good shape, and their reign has been one never before surpassed.

Both superintendent and matron qualified under the Civil Service, but the affairs of the Home have required incessant work, and it is the desire of Mr. Tway to spend the remainder of their lives without the necessity of incessant work.

FINE PHOTO PLAY OPENS SERIES

The Palace theater inaugurated the "All Star Feature" films of the newly organized Alco Film Co., in its initial release of "The Nightingale," with Ethel Barrymore in the stellar role of Isola Franti, Monday night.

The theater was packed to the doors for each performance and many were unable to get in.

These All-Star feature films offer one of the greatest opportunities which has ever been given to lovers of the photo drama, in the high standard of its productions and in bringing before the public at a nominal cost, leading theatrical stars who appear in photo plays for the first time.

Augustus Thomas, the playwright, supervised the direction of the picture and Miss Barrymore, one of the leading of the dramatic stars, appears to artistic advantage in her screen debut. Her characterization is wonderful, the womanly, graceful actress impressing her great charm indelibly upon the audience.

Miss Barrymore is surrounded by an exceptional cast in the principal parts and the entire production augurs well for the success of the new company.

On next Monday night Andrew Mack will be seen in "The Ragged Earl."

HUMAN PERSONALITY.

A Product Not of Brain or Heart, but of the Nervous System.

To Galen is ascribed the belief that the brain was the seat of the rational soul, the heart the location of courage and fear, and the liver that of love. This distribution of the element of personality over the physical body finds its expression in the common speech of today, particularly in relation to the heart, which is widely accepted by the popular mind as the source of the more tender emotions.

It was chiefly through the anatomists and physiologists of the early renaissance that the modern movement, which has tended to limit personality to the nervous system, was seriously begun, a movement which, with the increase of knowledge, has gained support to such an extent that it can now be maintained beyond any reasonable doubt.

Human personality is in no true sense the outcome of the non-nervous organs, such as the digestive or the circulatory organs, but is the direct product of the nervous system. This system, to be sure, is embedded among the other organs of the body, and the environment thus provided influences profoundly its condition and action, but acuteness or dullness of sense, quickness or slowness of action, temperamental traits, such as a gloomy or bright disposition, incapacity, shiftlessness, honesty, thriftiness or sweetness, are all, strictly speaking, functions of the nervous organs.

Although only the higher animals can be said to possess personality in this sense, traces of it occur in the lower forms, and its evolution is indissolubly connected with that of the nervous system.—Professor G. H. Parker in Popular Science Monthly.

The great successes of the world have been affairs of a second, a third—nay, a fiftieth—trial.—John Morley.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Convulsions.

Convulsions always indicate an unstable condition of the nervous system. We do not look for stability of the nervous system in babies, and we most certainly cannot expect to find it in babies who have got rickets. Such children, besides suffering from convulsions, how by their restlessness, their fits of screaming, their poor sleep, their swollen abdomens, their general muscular debility, that they are insufficiently or improperly nourished. No baby today ought to have rickets. The condition is well understood, and its treatment is so simple that no parents ought to be unable to avail themselves of it. At one time teething was blamed for most infantile convulsions, but now most physicians doubt that teething alone can bring on these attacks without some other predisposing cause. In a few unfortunate cases a child who has the convulsive tendency may have it fastened upon him for life by bad domestic training—either by the over-severity or the overindulgence of the parents. If convulsions persist a physician will find out the cause and advise the treatment. It is always a good plan to place the child in a warm bath when the spasm appears.

Mild Reproof.

"I say, young fellow," said the nervous man to the taxi chauffeur, who was speeding.
"Well?" snapped the chauffeur.
"What is it about me that gave you the impression that I am in a hurry?"

FAYETTE MEDICAL SOCIETY ELECTION

The Fayette County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting at the Cherry hotel, Tuesday morning, with quite a number of physicians in attendance, and with deep interest manifested in the proceedings.

The annual election of officers was held and the following officials were chosen: President, Dr. G. W. Blakeley; vice-president, Dr. W. E. Ireland; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Lucy Pine; corresponding secretary, Dr. L. P. Howell; censor, Dr. F. E. Todhunter; representative to the State Association meeting to be held in Cincinnati, Dr. R. Red Cross Seal, four times actual size.

The sale of Red Cross seals, conducted by the Browning club women is starting off splendidly, offering immense encouragement for the enormous amount of work that it means to sell 25,000 stamps.

And that is what these ambitious club women are going to do.

Last year the club sold over 12,000, their zeal securing the services of Miss Mercer, the district nurse, and this year their purpose is to make a helpful contribution to the new associated charities movement.

The sale of 25,000 stamps entitles the society to $200 toward the salary of the permanent nurse, in addition to aiding greatly in the anti-tuberculosis work.

The women are enthusiastic over Monday's sale, the first day that they have been out.

Two women alone sold 2100 seals among business firms and quite a number were placed privately.

The Dahl-Millikan Co. and the Washington Milling Co. each bought 500 seals; the Inskeep Manufacturing Co. and the Ford Hardware Co., 100 each, and different retail houses purchased for their individual use 900 seals.

The list of those who purchase seals in large number will probably be published from time to time and the growth of the list watched with interest.

COMMITTEES RESPOND TO CALL MADE BY SECRETARY

New Enthusiasm Injected Into Members Who are Made to Realize That Success Depends Upon Efforts Put Forth—Work of Women Commended by Secretary Patton in Address Before Committees.

If the local Y. M. C. A., like any similar institution, is to prosper and to accomplish the maximum results within its power, it is necessary that the separate forces on which it depends, namely, its committees, be exerted to their full power and that they combine their powers to produce the strength that will insure these things. Such was the substance of a spirited address delivered by General Y. M. C. A. Secretary Walter Patton to the members in attendance at the special joint meeting of the Association Membership and Physical Committee Monday evening.

By far the best attended conference of the kind held in many weeks the meeting was likewise the most enthusiastic. Brought to a realization of the urgent demand on them for immediate and fruitful action the members left the building with a new and strong determination that can not but accomplish results.

During the course of his talk the feature of the meeting, Mr. Patton brought to the attention of the members a number of needs in connection with the Y. M. C. A.'s work.

He pointed out the expense of maintaining the organization, the need of certain repairs, and the subsequent necessity of the committees themselves putting forth their efforts to meet these obstructions.

"A secretary is not a Y. M. C. A.," said Mr. Patton in reference to his own part of the work. He went on to point out that the head of the institution depended directly on the auxiliary committees to advance the institution's work and that without their assistance he was practically helpless.

The response was immediate. The enthusiasm that marked the close of his address was unbounded. All were ready and eager to lend their aid and immediately plans were laid for the securing of their object. Before leaving each member had pledged himself to secure two new memberships before Tuesday night. It is believed that these promises will be fulfilled.

The immediate need of repair of the water system and swimming pool apparatus was advanced with the result that $50 was immediately raised among those present. This, added to funds from other sources, will meet the emergency nicely.

Mr. Patton, during his talk, referred in glowing terms to the splendid work accomplished in the carnival given by the women's auxiliary.

HORSESHOE CURRENCY.

Curious Shaped Money In Use on the West Coast of Africa.

Among the strangest coins in the world are those used in certain out of the way towns and villages in southwest Nigeria, on the west coast of Africa, and called "manillas."

In shape they resemble a horseshoe with the two extremities flattened out like a camel's foot. Being made of solid copper, three-eighths of an inch thick, they weigh over eight ounces each. In "face value" seven of these queer coins are equivalent to one quarter, so that a dollar's worth would be an uncomfortably heavy load.

Not only are these "manillas" used among the natives, but white traders accept them as legal tender for goods sold at the various stores. At one time this strangely shaped money had quite a circulation in certain parts of the coast, but its use is now restricted to a few bush towns and one or two of the smaller seaborne places, including Bonny, Brass and Akassa.

"Manillas" are now very difficult to obtain, and curio collectors value them not solely by reason of their scarcity, but because of the novel serviette rings they make when silver plated.—Wide World Magazine.

Young's Impromptu.

To most persons Edward Young is the author of "Night Thoughts" and nothing more, but he was also a man of the world and a shrewd and caustic wit as well as the rector of St. Mary's church at Welwyn.

It was there in the garden of the rectory that he composed some of the best impromptu verses known. He was walking with two ladies when some one summoned him to the house. His companions were agreeable, and he was in no haste to leave them. Turning as he reached the gate, he said: Thus Adam looked when from the garden driven And thus disputed orders sent from heaven. Like him, I go and yet to go am loath; Like him, I go, for angels drove us both. Hard was his fate, but mine still more unkind; His Eve went with him, but mine stays behind. —London Express.

Linguistic Barriers.

It is generally accepted that the adoption of a universal language, purely spoken, is handicapped by the fact that it is confronted with physical impossibilities. In the first place, the vocal organs are so entirely dissimilar in different races that a language will change too much for the various people using it to understand each other. If the Italian language could be given to the Chinese or the Russians it would change so that in a few years no one would recognize it as the same. This disability may be accounted for by the fact that the people in the chilly north speak with the lips nearly closed and those living in a mild climate give free articulation by opening the mouth.

Peanuts as They Grow.

The peanut plant somewhat resembles clover in its foliage and has small, yellow single flowers. After blossoming the little pods bend down and thrust themselves into the soil, when they grow into the well known thick shelled fruits. In cultivating the pods are covered with earth, thus insuring a large crop. Peanuts are natives of tropical America, but are now grown in many warm countries. In the southern United States they constitute an important crop.

SHIPYARD SECRETS.

Precautions Taken to Guard Them by the English Officials.

Every British shipyard that builds for the navy must take great precautions that none of the secrets entrusted to its care shall leak out. Detectives watch all visitors and keep the workmen under observation also. Plain clothes officers guard every entrance, and nobody is allowed to bring in even a small parcel unless it is first examined, for fear that it may conceal a camera. At one of the big construction yards one man in every two dozen is thoroughly searched from head to foot each night on leaving. All the draftsman engaged on the drawings of a new warship are sworn to secrecy, and the plans are invariably kept under lock and key when not in use.

These precautions have brought many suspicious circumstances to light. One night when a new cruiser was about to undergo her trials two men crept aboard as she lay at anchor. They were captured and handed over to the police. Shortly afterward, on the day of her trial, the chief engineer thought it would be advisable to have another look at the interior of the turbines before steaming to make certain that no rubbish had got inside to injure the delicate turbine blades. But worse than rubbish was found. When the turbines were opened two heavy steel chisels were discovered inside. If the machinery had been started the damage would have taken months to repair.—Pearson's Weekly.

SNARED BY AN ECLIPSE.

Superstition Caused the Death of Two Athenian Generals.

In the old days eclipses were looked upon with superstition and dread, and more than once they were factors in battles. A lunar eclipse was the final undoing of the Athenian general Nicias and his supporting general, Demosthenes. The Athenians attacking Syracuse had won encouraging preliminary successes and at one time almost had the city in their power. Indolence or overconfidence held them back when breaks in the defense invited them, and before the opportunity was improved a Spartan general with a small force made his way into the city and encouraged its militia to new efforts. Nicias and his supporting general, Demosthenes, who had come with reinforcements, decided to abandon the campaign and go home while they still had control of the sea. Nicias was sick and discouraged. On the eve of sailing a total eclipse of the moon disturbed him. It was regarded as an inauspicious sign, and Nicias waited a month for a more favorable omen.

In that month the Syracusans barricaded the Athenian fleet in the harbor. A futile effort was made to break through, and then a wretched army undertook an overland march, was pursued, surrendered after three days' attack, and Nicias and Demosthenes were put to death.

Battle In Poland Still Without Decisive Result.

CRITICS REVIEW SITUATION

Germans Said by the English to Have Underestimated the Qualities of Their Opponents and to Have Opposed Them With an Army Composed of Second Line Men—Russians Blocked in East Prussia.

London, Dec. 1.—Another day of the crucial battle between the Russians and the Germanic allies in Poland has passed without a decisive result. The Berlin official statement says there is nothing of importance to report from Poland, while the Russian government rests upon its warning against over-optimism.

The facts, as gleaned from various messages of correspondents, appear to be that three semi-independent engagements are progressing between Thorn on the north and Cracow on the south, in which both combatants have achieved local successes without a distinct victory for either arms.

Some of the British military experts believe that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces have been split into three units, one of which certainly is almost completely enveloped, while the Russians have driven a wedge between the German army and its Austrian ally in the region of Cracow. They declare that the Germans have consistently underestimated the qualities of their Muscovite opponents and have opposed them with a body composed wholly of second line troops, but are now rushing heavy reinforcements from the western line to avert a Polish Sedan.

Berlin reports the failure of the Russian attack on the fortifications east of Dirschow, in East Prussia, with heavy losses, while unofficial messages from Petrograd describe an important Russian gain and the capture of ten miles of trenches to the northeast of Lodz, Poland.

Advices from Holland report that railway traffic, newspapers and posts in the Brussels region are entirely suspended. It is presumed for the purpose of suppressing news of a movement of German troops to the eastward.

The only development in the western theater was the renewal of the British naval bombardment of the German base at Zeebrugge.

England was surprised at the announcement that King George had left on a visit to the headquarters of the British forces in France, where he is certain of an enthusiastic reception from the soldiers.

SCHOOLS AND THE PICTURE THEATRES

Being the Two Greatest Educational Forces in the World, They Should Get Together to Protect the Mind of the Child During Its Most Impressionable Age.

The effect of the motion picture upon the mind of the child, especially during the period of adolescence, is a matter of the keenest concern to the censoring committees of the National Board of Censorship. They realize that "the child of today is the man of tomorrow" and that upon the moral and educational influences that surround the child largely depends the "making" of the man.

Dr. Albert Shiels, of the New York Department of Education, speaking on this point said:

"We have made wonderful strides in clean pictures. There is no country in the world that, from the moral standpoint, exhibits a grade of pictures as good as our own. This is due largely to the work of the National Board of Censorship, a body which practically saved the art from those whose ideals expressed themselves in poor pictures.

"An investigation carried on in one city showed that out of 748 school children, 41 per cent. of them preferred educational films, 30 per cent. dramas, 27 per cent. comedies, and just 2 per cent. crime. Out of 3,000 children more than half attended a theatre once a week or oftener. Only 10 per cent. did not attend any.

"The two factors of the two greatest educational forces in the world—the picture theatre and the school—should get together. If the picture houses of New York and the school people were working together with understanding and respect for each other, it would have a tremendous effect for good upon a constituency of at least a million young people in New York alone."

INDICTMENTS MUST STAND

Federal Judge Dismisses Plea of Former Directors.

New York, Dec. 1.—After hearing arguments that lasted five hours, Judge Sessions of the United States district court dismissed the pleas in abatement filed by William Rockefeller and eight other defendants in the New Haven case, attacking the validity of the indictments charging them with conspiring to violate the Sherman law by building up a railroad monopoly.

The last speaker for the government had hardly seated himself when Judge Sessions began the rendition of his decision, saying that he had acquainted himself with all the phases of the New Haven case before the argument. Moreover, he said he had little patience with "mere technicalities."

The pleas in abatement were filed by William Rockefeller, George F. Baker, Charles F. Brooker, William Skinner, D. Newton Barney, Robert W. Taft, James S. Elton, Frederick F. Brewster and Henry K. McHarg. The judge gave the attorneys for the nine defendants until Thursday morning to file demurrers to the indictments against them.

HABIT-FORMING DRUGS IN MOTION PICTURES

National Board of Censorship Makes Clear Its Position.

The National Board of Censorship recognizes the need of popular education as to extent and dangerous effects of habit-forming drugs and believes that motion pictures may be a medium for this purpose.

The Board is opposed in the presentation of this subject to the portrayal of the alluring, the gruesome, and suggestive. It will allow only those scenes of the original progress and accompaniments which are dramatically necessary to point the moral. It also opposes those methods of using Reproducing the Grand Canyon.

A panoramic reproduction of the Grand Canyon of Arizona is being built at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at a cost of over $300,000. Over 50,000 square yards of linen canvas imported from Scotland are being used for the set pieces. NOTHING BETTER FOR WEAK WOMEN

"I Never Spent Any Money That Did Me So Much Good as That I Spent for Vinol."

Bellefontaine, Ohio.—"I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol. My nerves were in a very bad condition, making me very weak, tired, and worn out and often drowsy headaches. I had tried cod liver oil, doctor's medicines, and other preparations without benefit.

"One day a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did and soon my appetite increased, I slept better and now I am strong, vigorous and well and can do my housework with pleasure."—Mrs. J. F. LAMBORN, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Nervous, weak, tired, worn-out women should take Mrs. Lamborn's advice and try Vinol for there are literally thousands of men and women who were formerly run-down, weak and nervous, who owe their good health to Vinol.

It is the medicinal, tissue building elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making, strengthening influence of tonic iron, contained in Vinol, which makes it so efficient in all such cases.

BLACKMER & TANQUARY,

TEUTON ALLIES ARE BLAMED

Paris, Dec. 1.—An abstract of a yellow book was given out by the foreign offices. It lays emphasis upon the responsibility of Austria as primal cause of the conflict, and says that Germany persistently avoided every opportunity to adopt measures of conciliation and reach a settlement. The yellow book recites from the standpoint of France the events which led up to the present war and reviews at length the diplomatic exchanges previous to the declaration of war.

In its presentation of the case the French foreign office places the responsibility fully upon Austria and Germany, and relates that Great Britain, Russia and France were ready to adopt means of settlement, but that the Teuton allies would not consent. Germany's ultimatum to Russia is said to have precipitated the rupture. France, according to this yellow book, exhausted every possible avenue of conciliation before she decided to draw the sword to defend her very life.

Opening of the Final Session of the Sixty-third Congress Less Than a Week Away — President Wilson's Message to Be Read Tuesday Next. Several House Committees Get Down to Work.

Washington, Dec. 1.—With the opening of the final session of the Sixty-third congress less than a week away, members of both houses began flocking to Washington.

On the house side the committee on appropriations and naval affairs spent a busy day. Democratic members generally sounded as the keynote of the session the hope that all necessary business would be concluded by March 4, so that an extra session to usher in the newly-elected Sixty-fourth congress before December would be unnecessary. The president's message will be read Tuesday.

Appropriations for the bureau of navigation were considered by the naval affairs committee, members of the committee expressing the opinion that it would be some time before the fight over increasing the naval program would be reached. Estimates from the departments are eagerly awaited by other appropriation committees.

As to a definite legislative program there has been no decision as yet, but it is certain that several conservation measures, including the general water power and land leasing bills, are to be pressed. Hearings on these bills before the senate public lands committee already have been set for Dec. 9 and 16, respectively. Senator Myers, chairman of the committee, said he expected the hearings would be concluded within two weeks and that the bills, with amendments, would be reported to the senate early in January.

Senator Kern, the majority leader, said he hoped to talk with President Wilson during the week concerning the legislative program.

A subcommittee of the house appropriations committee concluded hearings on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, the first of the big supply measures. Director of the Census Harris, Postmaster General Burleson and Secretary of Labor Wilson discussed estimates for appropriations to be carried in the bill.

It is believed that the poppy was known as a funeral plant to the ancient Egyptians, for upon the tombs opened by Belzoni there appeared representations of plants which were evidently intended for poppies.—Pittsburgh Press.

Paris, Dec. 1.—An abstract of a yellow book was given out by the foreign offices. It lays emphasis upon the responsibility of Austria as primal cause of the conflict, and says that Germany persistently avoided every opportunity to adopt measures of conciliation and reach a settlement. The yellow book recites from the standpoint of France the events which led up to the present war and reviews at length the diplomatic exchanges previous to the declaration of war.

In its presentation of the case the French foreign office places the responsibility fully upon Austria and Germany, and relates that Great Britain, Russia and France were ready to adopt means of settlement, but that the Teuton allies would not consent. Germany’s ultimatum to Russia is said to have precipitated the rupture. France, according to this yellow book, exhausted every possible avenue of conciliation before she decided to draw the sword to defend her very life.

CLAIM SERVANS HAVE LOST OUT

Berlin, Dec. 1.—The Austrian advance into Serbia affords a reasonable ground for believing that the campaign there soon will be brought to a successful conclusion, and thus release troops for action elsewhere. INDICTMENTS MUST STAND

Federal Judge Dismisses Plea of Former Directors.

New York, Dec. 1.—After hearing arguments that lasted five hours, Judge Sessions of the United States district court dismissed the pleas in abatement filed by William Rockefeller and eight other defendants in the New Haven case, attacking the validity of the indictments charging them with conspiring to violate the Sherman law by building up a railroad monopoly.

The last speaker for the government had hardly seated himself when Judge Sessions began the rendition of his decision, saying that he had acquainted himself with all the phases of the New Haven case before the argument. Moreover, he said he had little patience with “mere technicalities.”

The pleas in abatement were filed by William Rockefeller, George F. Baker, Charles F. Brooker, William Skinner, D. Newton Barney, Robert W. Taft, James S. Elton, Frederick F. Brewster and Henry K. McHarg. The judge gave the attorneys for the nine defendants until Thursday morning to file demurrers to the indictments against them.

SCHOOLS AND THE PICTURE THEATRES

Being the Two Greatest Educational Forces in the World, They Should Get Together to Protect the Mind of the Child During Its Most Impressionable Age.

The effect of the motion picture upon the mind of the child, especially during the period of adolescence, is a matter of the keenest concern to the censoring committees of the National Board of Censorship. They realize that “the child of today is the man of tomorrow” and that upon the moral and educational influences that surround the child largely depends the “making” of the man.

Dr. Albert Shiels, of the New York Department of Education, speaking on this point said:

“We have made wonderful strides in clean pictures. There is no country in the world that, from the moral standpoint, exhibits a grade of pictures as good as our own. This is due largely to the work of the National Board of Censorship, a body which practically saved the art from those whose ideals expressed themselves in poor pictures.

“An investigation carried on in one city showed that out of 748 school children, 41 per cent. of them preferred educational films, 30 per cent. dramas, 27 per cent. comedies, and just 2 per cent. crime. Out of 3,000 children more than half attended a theatre once a week or oftener. Only 10 per cent. did not attend any.

“The two factors of the two greatest educational forces in the world—the picture theatre and the school—should get together. If the picture houses of New York and the school people were working together with understanding and respect for each other, it would have a tremendous effect for good upon a constituency of at least a million young people in New York alone.”

Reproducing the Grand Canyon. A panoramic reproduction of the Grand Canyon of Arizona is being built at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at a cost of over $300,000. Over 50,000 square yards of linen canvas imported from Scotland are being used for the set pieces. Visitors in this concession will view the panorama from observation parlor cars moved by electricity on an elevated trestle seemingly along the rim of the canyon. The observer will be enabled to see eight of the most distinctive points of the canyon, and the ride will last over half an hour, including, apparently, a journey of more than 100 miles of the great gorge. Every resource of modern science is employed in the work of reproduction.

The poppy throughout the east is an emblem of death. In many parts of India this flower is planted upon graves and in cemeteries. TO AVOID AN EXTRA SESSION

Democrats Would Conclude All Business By March 4.

SOLONS ARRIVING AT CAPITAL

Opening of the Final Session of the Sixty-third Congress Less Than a Week Away — President Wilson's Message to Be Read Tuesday Next. Several House Committees Get Down to Work.

Washington, Dec. 1.—With the opening of the final session of the Sixty-third congress less than a week away, members of both houses began flocking to Washington.

On the house side the committee on appropriations and naval affairs spent a busy day. Democratic members generally sounded as the keynote of the session the hope that all necessary business would be concluded by March 4, so that an extra session to usher in the newly-elected Sixty-fourth congress before December would be unnecessary. The president's message will be read Tuesday.

Appropriations for the bureau of navigation were considered by the naval affairs committee, members of the committee expressing the opinion that it would be some time before the fight over increasing the naval program would be reached. Estimates from the departments are eagerly awaited by other appropriation committees.

As to a definite legislative program there has been no decision as yet, but it is certain that several conservation measures, including the general water power and land leasing bills, are to be pressed. Hearings on these bills before the senate public lands committee already have been set for Dec. 9 and 16, respectively. Senator Myers, chairman of the committee, said he expected the hearings would be concluded within two weeks and that the bills, with amendments, would be reported to the senate early in January.

Senator Kern, the majority leader, said he hoped to talk with President Wilson during the week concerning the legislative program.

A subcommittee of the house appropriations committee concluded hearings on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, the first of the big supply measures. Director of the Census Harris, Postmaster General Burleson and Secretary of Labor Wilson discussed estimates for appropriations to be carried in the bill.

KEEP SHARP LOOKOUT FOR COUNTERFEIT SILVER COINS

Counterfeit coins, in denominations from five cents to one dollar, have come to light in Chillicothe, and other Ohio towns, so that local citizens may be fleeced if they are not careful.

It is evident that a gang of counterfeiters are busy, and that they pass the coins at places of business, and do not go near the banks, as the coins always come into the banks from the tills of unsuspecting merchants.

Regarding the appearance of the coins in Chillicothe, the News of that city says in part:

"The first of these coins which came to the notice of the bankers was during the sale of season tickets at the High school for the Lyceum course. A counterfeit half dollar was paid in by one of the students who had received it in change. This matter was reported to the First National bank by Principal J. A. Smith but no more of the coins appeared for some time.

"Another coin of the same denomination was received at the High school during some collection, which was evidently a good counterfeit, as it was somewhat lighter in weight than it should have been although it seemed perfect in every other respect.

"A few days ago a certain bank received two or three bad coins of denominations less than a dollar. Another bank received a bad dollar from a customer Saturday evening. This counterfeit was easily detected as it was heavier than the regular dollar and a poor imitation.

Some of the banks have not received any bad coins as yet, although they are all on the look out for them in this city. Reports were received by one bank from Toledo a few days ago saying that that city is flooded with bad coins and counterfeit bills, including gold certificates. Several private citizens and business men have received bad coins in the last few days and it seems that counterfeiters are taking advantage of the lull in this kind of business and have turned loose a flood of bad money in the state.

"So far no counterfeit bills have been detected in this city and the various banking houses are on their guard against them."

The laws further permit a military occupant to levy, in addition to the ordinary taxes, money contributions for the needs of the army or of the administration of the occupied territory. Contributions are to be required only on a written order and on the responsibility of a commander in chief.

Their collection is to be regulated by the rules in force for the assessment of taxes, and in every case a receipt is to be given to the individual payer. Getting at the Truth.

At twenty-three he thought fate was making a special effort to keep him down.

At thirty-five he thought he might have done great things if his wife had not been such a handicap.

At forty he believed he would have been a great man if his children had not made it necessary for him to cling to the sure things.

At fifty he was positive that there was a conspiracy against him on the part of his fellow men.

At sixty he felt that if he could have been thirty-five again nothing could have stopped him.

At seventy he began to believe that he had failed because of a lack of courage and inability to make the most of his opportunities.

At eighty he was almost sure of it.—Chicago Herald.

Defining a Siege.

In international law a siege is thus defined by Oppenheim: "Siege is called the surrounding and investing of an enemy locality by an armed force, cutting off those inside from all communication for the purpose of starving them into surrender or for the purpose of attacking the invested locality and taking it by assault. Bombardment is the throwing of shot and shell upon persons and things by artillery. Siege may be accompanied by bombardment and assault, but this is not necessary, since a siege may be carried out by mere investment and starvation caused thereby."

Difference in Time.

A large, slow footed darky was leaning against the corner of the railroad station in a manufacturing town when the noon whistle in the big factory blew and the hands hurried out, bearing their grub buckets. The darky listened, with his head on one side, until the rocketing echo had quite died away. Then he heaved a deep sigh and remarked to himself: "Dar she go. Dinner time fur some folks, but jes' 12 o'clock fur me!"—New York Times.

A Gilbert Story.

Sir W. S. Gilbert, who was one of the few playwrights who defended the stage censor, was noted for his caustic criticisms or anything which did not meet with his approval. "When I look at one of them I always feel that she ought to have a joint in it and wear a stocking."—London Tit-Bits.

New York's Population.

The population of New York is 9,400,000. The state has more people than any one of these European countries: Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Bulgaria, Serbia, Roumania, Montenegro. It has almost as many as Scotland and Ireland combined. It has more than all Canada and twice as many as Australia.—New York American.

Newspaper Advertising

Goes direct to the people and the people constitute the buying public. Newspaper advertising not only talks but it emphasizes; it has the undivided attention of the reader and covers a field no salesman can hope to reach. There are many styles in newspaper advertising and the small announcement, which costs only five cents, is just as effective in its way as the larger one, which costs proportionately more. The benefits to be derived can not be measured by the size of the ad, for the very good reason that the small, inexpensive announcement invariably proves effective. Newspaper advertising costs from five cents up to any price the advertiser desires to pay.
